DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-4 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
2. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 5-15 have been considered and have been withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims ^{1-25 are} ~~5A~~ is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Claim 1 has the parameter S set to greater than or equal to 2, and the parameter k set as greater than or equal to 4. The specification and the abstract both have S set to greater than or equal to 4, and the parameter k set as greater than or equal to 2 (see page 2 of the spec, in the Summary of the Invention). Applicant points to figure 22 to support the amendment to the claim, however, a fuller explanation is necessary to explain the inconsistencies between the claim and the disclosure.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Yamamoto.

Regarding claim 1, S core rings, each said core ring of which can be modeled as a set of nodes interconnected by links, where S greater than or equal to 2 and is an integer is disclosed in Yamamoto, figure 13, elements 1273 and 1274. Each said core ring having at least N nodes, where N is greater than or equal to 4 and is an integer, each node/link configurable in terms of directing the medium from given source toward given destination figure 13 (showing many nodes on each of the two core loops, and directionality of medium flow on the links between the nodes). Where each of the core rings is directly intersected by means of spanning rings, where k is greater than or equal to 4 is disclosed in figure 13, elements 1265-1272. Such that there are two types of routing paths comprised of links and nodes from each node on any core ring to any other node on any other core ring, and each node has only one of the two types of routing paths available to it is disclosed in column 4, lines 37-40 (there are two groups of nodes, each having opposite transmission directions, in the fourth embodiment) and column 16, lines 17-29 (channel 1273 is the first type, corresponding to a first group of nodes, and channel 1274 is the second type, corresponding to second group).

Regarding claim 2, the first ring is connected to the second ring by at least one spanning ring in which the directionality of the medium flow is configurable is disclosed in figure 13 (showing various flow directions in the various channels).

Regarding claim 3, the nodes of each ring are connected by core links in which the directionality of the medium flow is configurable is disclosed in figure 13 (showing various flow directions in the various channels).

Regarding claim 4, the nodes of each ring are configurable so as to serve simultaneously as both input sources of the transferred medium or output destinations of the transferred medium is disclosed in figure 13 (the nodes input and output the flow of data).

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 5-25 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
